          When you can appeal
        </h1>

Your local planning authority makes decisions on planning applications.

You can appeal a planning decision if either:

you disagree with it the decision was not made within 8 weeks (13 weeks for a major development, such as 10 or more dwellings or a building of more than 1,000 square metres)

There’s a different process to appeal a householder planning decision for a smaller project like an extension, conservatory or loft conversion.

There’s no fee for appealing.

Only the person who made the application can appeal. If you did not apply, you can comment on an appeal instead.

<h2 id="deadline-for-appealing">Deadline for appealing</h2>

If you disagree with a decision, you must appeal within 6 months of the date on the decision notice from your local planning authority.

If they did not make a decision within 8 weeks, you can appeal up to 6 months after the decision was due.

The deadline is earlier if you’ve received an enforcement notice - you must appeal within 28 days of the notice.

<h2 id="when-you-can-expect-a-decision">When you can expect a decision</h2>

You’ll get a decision once your appeal is validated.

Check how long planning appeal decisions normally take.

Your local planning authority makes decisions about householder planning applications.

You can appeal a householder planning decision if you disagree with it.

Householder planning applications cover small projects like extensions and loft conversions. There’s a different process to appeal a full planning decision.

There’s no fee for appealing.

Only the person who made the application can appeal.

<h2 id="deadline-for-appealing">Deadline for appealing</h2>

If you disagree with a decision, you must appeal within 12 weeks of the date on the decision notice from your local planning authority.

The deadline’s earlier if you’ve received an enforcement notice. You must appeal within 28 days of the notice.

<h2 id="when-you-can-expect-a-decision">When you can expect a decision</h2>

You’ll get a decision once your appeal is validated.

Check how long planning appeal decisions normally take.

When you can appeal
</h1>

Your local planning authority may send you an enforcement notice if you’ve built or changed something without planning permission.

You can appeal against an enforcement notice if you own, rent or lawfully occupy the property or land it applies to.

Anyone can comment on an appeal.

There’s no fee for appealing, unless you also apply for planning permission.

<h2 id="deadline-for-appealing">Deadline for appealing</h2>

Your appeal must be received before the date the enforcement notice takes effect.

<h2 id="when-you-can-expect-a-decision">When you can expect a decision</h2>

You’ll get a decision once your appeal is validated.

Check how long planning appeal decisions normally take.

<h2 class="entry-title">Nationally Significant Infrastructure Projects regime: operational review</h2>
Minister of State for Housing Christopher Pincher MP launched an operational review of the NSIP regime as part of a speech at the National Infrastructure Planning Association (NIPA) summer conference on 7 July 2021.
The operational review forms part of the National Infrastructure Planning Reform Programme. In advance of his speech, Minister Pincher wrote a letter to NIPA members introducing the reform programme and setting out how important it will be for all those who use or interact with the NSIP regime to work together to make the operational review a success.
See the Annex to the Minister’s letter for further details of the National Infrastructure Planning Reform Programme and a road map of reforms.

Our complaints line is open between 09:00 and 12:00, Monday to Friday (closed on weekends and public holidays).

Please be aware that we are taking up to 40 working days to answer complaints. If a complaint is more complex or relevant persons are unavailable for comment, we may take longer to respond.

If you are making a legal challenge in the High Court, do not wait for our response. Our complaints procedure is separate from the process and timescales for filing legal challenges with the Courts.

The Planning Inspectorate treats all complaints seriously. Our aim is to provide a clear and full response, first time.

<h2 id="what-our-complaints-procedure-covers">What our complaints procedure covers</h2>

  The standard of service we provide
  The conduct of our staff
  Any action or lack of action by staff affecting an individual or group
  Circumstances where you think our staff have not properly followed Government planning policy or guidance, relevant legislation and our procedural guidance.

<h2 id="what-our-complaints-procedure-does-not-cover">What our complaints procedure does not cover</h2>

  Reconsidering the merits of a case, the decisions or recommendations of Inspectors or Examining Authorities or the evidence taken into account
  Adding to decisions or recommendations
  The actions of Councils, Government departments or other parties
  Government policy
  Complaint matters that have already been fully answered by us

Decisions by Inspectors (or decisions based on the recommendations of Inspectors) are final unless successfully challenged in the High Court on a point of law. Only the Courts can legally review decisions or recommendations by Inspectors and identify an error in law.

The Planning Inspectorate can only reconsider a case if the High Court decides to cancel the decision and returns the case to the Planning Inspectorate for it to be decided again.

We can only correct minor typographical mistakes in specific types of decisions on request. Information is given in our published document, Planning appeals: procedural guide.

<h2 id="service-standards">Service standards</h2>

Please read our Customer Charter for information about our service standards.

<h2 id="how-we-use-your-information">How we use your information</h2>

The Planning Inspectorate takes its data protection responsibilities for the information you provide us with very seriously. To find out more about how we use and manage your personal data, please go to our privacy notice.

<h2 id="how-to-complain">How to complain</h2>

Complaints should be made as soon as the reason becomes apparent. We will not answer complaints made more than one year after a decision or recommendation.

Customer contact form

Email: feedback@planninginspectorate.gov.uk

Telephone: 0303 444 5884

<h2 id="before-making-a-complaint">Before making a complaint</h2>

Contact the relevant support staff at the Planning Inspectorate for any questions or concerns you have about a case that has not yet concluded. Most issues can be answered by the support staff responsible for administering the case. If you are unsure about who to contact, please ask our customer team on 0303 444 5000.

The Programme Officer should be contacted for any questions or concerns you have about an examination of a Local Plan that has not yet concluded. Contact details can be found on the relevant Local Planning Authority’s website for the examination.

<h2 id="stages-of-the-complaints-procedure">Stages of the complaints procedure</h2>

<h3 id="stage-1">Stage 1</h3>

The Customer Team will answer any unresolved issues, concerns about staff conduct or any complaint made after a decision or recommendation.

As part of investigating complaints, Customer Team Officers may check facts against relevant guidance or case documentation. Inspectors or support staff may be asked for their comments. In a few cases, parties outside our organisation (such as a Local Authority) may also be contacted for their general observations on what occurred.

Complaints may also be referred to a senior manager with specialist casework knowledge for review, to help the Customer Team reach an independent view on whether to uphold the complaint or not. However, the reply will come from the Customer Team Officer.

<h3 id="stage-2">Stage 2</h3>

If a complainant considers that the reply from the Customer Team Officer has not adequately responded to their concerns, a Customer Team Manager will review the complaint and how it was handled and provide a final reply.

<h2 id="remedy-and-redress">Remedy and redress</h2>

For any acknowledged errors, we will write to the complainant explaining what has happened. The responsible staff and their line manager will be informed of the outcome as part of performance management. We will also look to see if lessons can be learned to prevent similar mistakes from happening again.

Where we uphold complaints, our remedies include:

  an apology, explanation and acknowledgement of responsibility remedial action, such as reviewing or changing our service standards; revising published material; revising procedures or guidance; training or supervising staff; or any combination of these.

In most cases, an explanation and an apology will be an appropriate response.

In exceptional circumstances, we may provide compensation for additional costs incurred as a direct result of an acknowledged error by us, where valid claims are made. Financial compensation is a final option and will only apply in cases where the loss or suffering is considered to warrant such a payment. Information is given in our published document, Planning Inspectorate: claims for repayment of additional costs (ex gratia scheme)

<h2 id="review-by-the-parliamentary-and-health-service-ombudsman">Review by the Parliamentary and Health Service Ombudsman</h2>

If you remain unhappy, you can ask your Member of Parliament to take your complaint to the independent Parliamentary and Health Service Ombudsman (PHSO) to review the handling of your complaint. The PHSO can be contacted at:

Our complaints line is open between 09:00 and 12:00, Monday to Friday (closed
on weekends and public holidays).

Please be aware that we are taking up to 40 working days to answer complaints. If a complaint is more complex or relevant persons are unavailable
for comment, we may take longer to respond.

If you are making a legal challenge in the High Court, do not wait for our response. Our complaints procedure is separate from the process and timescales for filing legal challenges with the Courts. The Planning Inspectorate treats all complaints seriously. Our aim is to provide a clear and full response, first time.

<h2 id="what-our-complaints-procedure-covers">What our complaints procedure covers</h2>

  The standard of service we provide
  The conduct of our staff
  Any action or lack of action by staff affecting an individual or group
  Circumstances where you think our staff have not properly followed Government planning policy or guidance, relevant legislation and our procedural guidance.

<h2 id="what-our-complaints-procedure-does-not-cover">What our complaints procedure does not cover</h2>

  Reconsidering the merits of a case, the decisions or recommendations of Inspectors or Examining Authorities or the evidence taken into account
  Adding to decisions or recommendations
  The actions of Councils, Government departments or other parties
  Government policy
  Complaint matters that have already been fully answered by us

Decisions by Inspectors (or decisions based on the recommendations of Inspectors) are final unless successfully challenged in the High Court on a point of law. Only the Courts can legally review decisions or recommendations by Inspectors and identify an error in law.

The Planning Inspectorate can only reconsider a case if the High Court decides to cancel the decision and returns the case to the Planning Inspectorate for it to be decided again.

We can only correct minor typographical mistakes in specific types of decisions on request. Information is given in our published document, Planning appeals: procedural guide.

<h2 id="service-standards">Service standards</h2>

Please read our Customer Charter for information about our service standards.

<h2 id="how-we-use-your-information">How we use your information</h2>

The Planning Inspectorate takes its data protection responsibilities for the information you provide us with very seriously. To find out more about how we use and manage your personal data, please go to our privacy notice.

<h2 id="how-to-complain">How to complain</h2>

Complaints should be made as soon as the reason becomes apparent. We will not answer complaints made more than one year after a decision or recommendation.

Complaints should be made in full at the start, providing as much detail as possible. You can send complaints to us using our contact form, by email or telephone.

Customer contact form

Telephone: 0303 444 5884

<h2 id="before-making-a-complaint">Before making a complaint</h2>

Contact the relevant support staff at the Planning Inspectorate for any questions or concerns you have about a case that has not yet concluded. Most issues can be answered by the support staff responsible for administering the case. If you are unsure about who to contact, please ask our customer team on 0303 444 5000.

The Programme Officer should be contacted for any questions or concerns you have about an examination of a Local Plan that has not yet concluded. Contact details can be found on the relevant Local Planning Authority’s website for the examination.

<h2 id="stages-of-the-complaints-procedure">Stages of the complaints procedure</h2>

<h3 id="stage-1">Stage 1</h3>

The Customer Team will answer any unresolved issues, concerns about staff conduct or any complaint made after a decision or recommendation.

As part of investigating complaints, Customer Team Officers may check facts against relevant guidance or case documentation. Inspectors or support staff may be asked for their comments. In a few cases, parties outside our organisation (such as a Local Authority) may also be contacted for their general observations on what occurred.

Complaints may also be referred to a senior manager with specialist casework knowledge for review, to help the Customer Team reach an independent view on whether to uphold the complaint or not. However, the reply will come from the Customer Team Officer.

<h3 id="stage-2">Stage 2</h3>

If a complainant considers that the reply from the Customer Team Officer has not adequately responded to their concerns, a Customer Team Manager will review the complaint and how it was handled and provide a final reply.

<h2 id="remedy-and-redress">Remedy and redress</h2>

For any acknowledged errors, we will write to the complainant explaining what has happened. The responsible staff and their line manager will be informed of the outcome as part of performance management. We will also look to see if lessons can be learned to prevent similar mistakes from happening again.

Where we uphold complaints, our remedies include:

  an apology, explanation and acknowledgement of responsibility
  remedial action, such as reviewing or changing our service standards; revising published material; revising procedures or guidance; training or supervising staff; or any combination of these.

In most cases, an explanation and an apology will be an appropriate response.

In exceptional circumstances, we may provide compensation for additional costs incurred as a direct result of an acknowledged error by us, where valid claims are made. Financial compensation is a final option and will only apply in cases where the loss or suffering is considered to warrant such a payment. Information is given in our published document, Planning Inspectorate: claims for repayment of additional costs (ex gratia scheme)

<h2 id="review-by-the-parliamentary-and-health-service-ombudsman">Review by the Parliamentary and Health Service Ombudsman</h2>

If you remain unhappy, you can ask your Member of Parliament to take your complaint to the independent Parliamentary and Health Service Ombudsman (PHSO) to review the handling of your complaint. The PHSO can be contacted at:

Welcome to National Infrastructure Planning

Here you can find out about proposed Nationally Significant Infrastructure Projects (NSIPs) within England and Wales.

This site is managed by the Planning Inspectorate, the government agency responsible for examining applications for NSIPs.

How the application process works

The Planning Act 2008 process was introduced to streamline the decision-making process for major infrastructure projects, making it fairer and faster for communities and applicants alike.

Nationally Significant Infrastructure Projects regime: operational review

Minister of State for Housing Christopher Pincher MP launched an operational review of the NSIP regime as part of a speech at the National Infrastructure Planning Association (NIPA) summer conference on 7 July 2021.

The operational review forms part of the National Infrastructure Planning Reform Programme. In advance of his speech, Minister Pincher wrote a letter to NIPA members introducing the reform programme and setting out how important it will be for all those who use or interact with the NSIP regime to work together to make the operational review a success.
See the Annex to the Minister’s letter for further details of the National Infrastructure Planning Reform Programme and a road map of reforms.

Mean Average - The total time taken divided by the number of cases. Also referred to as the ‘average’. A measure of how long each case would take, if the total time taken was spread evenly across all cases.

Median - The middle value, if the times are sorted. This means that half the cases take less then this time; and half the cases take more.

Decisions – number of decisions made.

Please note that the times given here are measured from the time an appeal which we are able to progress (‘valid’) to the time a decision is issued.

The smaller the number of decisions, the less helpful the mean and median are as measures for summarising performance. Particular care should be taken when there are fewer than twenty decisions. These are represented with an * in the table, but have been provided for completeness and transparency.

Each of the measures give a slightly different view of the average time taken to make a decision, both are provided because neither gives a perfect indication of the average. The mean is potentially affected by a small number of cases taking a long time – and this gives an over-estimate. The median is less affected by these few longer cases so may give a more helpful indication of the average.

The mean was published previously so we are publishing it to allow users to compare current with previous data.

In making use of the data provided, users are reminded that some decisions made in the latest month were on cases submitted a years or more before – as such, while they are the most recent snapshot available, they should not be relied on to give a reliable indication of what will happen to a case submitted recently or in the future.

We are reviewing our published information in order to make it more useful and accessible to users – please get in touch with us at statistics@planninginspectorate.gov.uk if you have suggestions on how we could improve the information we provide to you.

This means that half the cases take less then this time; and half the cases take more.\u003c/p\u003e\n\n\u003cp\u003eDecisions – number of decisions made.\u003c/p\u003e\n\n\u003cp\u003ePlease note that the times given here are measured from the time an appeal which we are able to progress (‘valid’) to the time a decision is issued.\u003c/p\u003e\n\n\u003cp\u003eThe smaller the number of decisions, the less helpful the mean and median are as measures for summarising performance. Particular care should be taken when there are fewer than twenty decisions. These are represented with an * in the table, but have been provided for completeness and transparency.\u003c/p\u003e\n\n\u003cp\u003eEach of the measures give a slightly different view of the average time taken to make a decision, both are provided because neither gives a perfect indication of the average. The mean is potentially affected by a small number of cases taking a long time – and this gives an over-estimate. The median is less affected by these few longer cases so may give a more helpful indication of the average.\u003c/p\u003e\n\n\u003cp\u003eThe mean was published previously so we are publishing it to allow users to compare current with previous data.\u003c/p\u003e\n\n\u003cp\u003eIn making use of the data provided, users are reminded that some decisions made in the latest month were on cases submitted a years or more before – as such, while they are the most recent snapshot available, they should not be relied on to give a reliable indication of what will happen to a case submitted recently or in the future.\u003c/p\u003e\n\n\u003cp\u003eWe are reviewing our published information in order to make it more useful and accessible to users – please get in touch with us at \u003ca href=\"mailto:statistics@planninginspectorate.gov.uk\" class=\"govuk-link\"\u003estatistics@planninginspectorate.gov.uk\u003c/a\u003e if you have suggestions on how we could improve the information we provide to you.\u003c/p\u003e\n\u003c/div\u003e"

Your local planning authority may send you an enforcement notice if you’ve built or changed something without planning permission.

You can appeal against an enforcement notice if you own, rent or lawfully occupy the property or land it applies to.

Anyone can comment on an appeal.

There’s no fee for appealing, unless you also apply for planning permission.

<h2 id="deadline-for-appealing">Deadline for appealing</h2>

Your appeal must be received before the date the enforcement notice takes effect.

<h2 id="when-you-can-expect-a-decision">When you can expect a decision</h2>

You’ll get a decision once your appeal is validated.

Check how long planning appeal decisions normally take.

Coronavirus Update

The QEII Centre is a Covid-secure venue, putting the safety of our clients and delegates at the forefront of everything we do. Our commitment to your health and safety is demonstrated by our adherence to the AEV All Secure Framework (which is approved by the UK Government), as well as receiving the mia AIM Secure accreditation.

To ensure that we continue to prioritise your safety, we are maintaining several measures including temperature checks for everyone who enters the Centre, provision of hand sanitiser and Cloroxing and regular cleaning of venues, office and touch surfaces.

Whilst Covid-certification is no longer compulsory, we will support all clients who require this as a condition of entry to the event. We also recommend wearing masks in public spaces and encourage frequent hand washing.

To find out more about our Covid-secure measures, book a site visit or enquire about our spaces, please contact our Account Management team on +44 20 7798 4000 or info@qeiicentre.london.

Ukraine: How You Can Help

The people of the United Kingdom are standing with Ukraine. Across the country, everyone wants to do their bit to support those who have been forced to flee their homes because of the conflict. Here is how you can help #StandWithUkraine.

Financial donations

If you want to donate money, there are a number of charities providing humanitarian relief in Ukraine.

- Donate to the Disasters Emergency Committee Ukraine Appeal

The UK Government matched, pound-for-pound, £25 million of public donations to this appeal.

Our commitment to your health and safety is demonstrated by our adherence to the AEV All Secure Framework (which is approved by the UK Government), as well as receiving the mia AIM Secure accreditation. To ensure that we continue to prioritise your safety, we are maintaining several measures including temperature checks for everyone who enters the Centre, provision of hand sanitiser and Cloroxing and regular cleaning of venues, office and touch surfaces. Whilst Covid-certification is no longer compulsory, we will support all clients who require this as a condition of entry to the event. We also recommend wearing masks in public spaces and encourage frequent hand washing. Your application will be refused if you do not advertise your application correctly.

You’ll need to hold a goods vehicle operator’s licence for each traffic area where you have an operating centre. The traffic areas are:

  east of England
  north-east of England
  north-west of England
  west of England
  London and the south-east of England
  West Midlands
  Scotland
  Wales

To find out more about traffic areas and how to make sure you have the right licence, email the Office of the Traffic Commissioner: enquiries@otc.gov.uk.

You’ll need:

  a debit or credit card
  your username and password if you’ve used the service before

You can register in the service if you’ve not used it before.

\n local and planning authorities
\n the police
\n some trade associations and trade unions
\n
\n\n<h3 id=\"when-a-public-body-can-object\">When a public body can object</h3>\n\n A public body can object to a licence about the: \n\n
\n professional competence of the operator or its transport manager
\n operator’s finances
\n operator’s reputation or fitness to hold a licence
\n operator’s arrangements for vehicle maintenance and drivers’ hours
\n operating centre’s environmental standards and general conditions

\n\n\n Objections must be put in writing to the traffic commissioner within 21 days of a licence application being made public. \n \n\n You can see the latest applications and traffic commissioner decisions in the regularly updated ‘Applications and Decisions’ guides for goods vehicles and the ‘Notices and Proceedings’ guides for public service vehicles (PSVs). \n\n Read the guide on goods vehicle operator licensing for further information. \n\n<h2 id=\"objections-by-individuals-representations\">Objections by individuals (representations)</h2>\n If a vehicle operator wants to add an operating centre to a licence or make changes to an existing centre, owners and residents of land nearby can object. This is called a ‘representation’. \n\n However, representations must be about environmental issues, such as concern over noise, and only if they’re going to affect the owner or resident’s ‘use or enjoyment’ of the land. \n\n Read the guide on making a representation or complaint for further information. \n\n" made by the Ministry of Defence recognises employers who have actively demonstrated their support for the Armed Forces community through implementing practical policies in the workplace.

Under the Defence Employer Recognition Scheme, employers support Defence personnel and encourage others to do the same. The scheme has three levels, Bronze, Silver and Gold for organisations that pledge, demonstrate or advocate support for Defence and the Armed Forces community. To achieve Gold, organisations must proactively demonstrate that the Armed Forces community are not unfairly disadvantaged as part of their recruitment policies.
They must also actively ensure their workforce is aware of their positive policies towards Defence people issues for veterans, Reserves, Cadet Force Adult Volunteers, and spouses and partners of those serving in the Armed Forces.

The prestigious Gold ERS Award made by the Ministry of Defence recognises employers who have actively demonstrated their support for the Armed Forces community through implementing practical policies in the workplace.\u003c/p\u003e\n\n\u003cp\u003eUnder the Defence Employer Recognition Scheme, employers support Defence personnel and encourage others to do the same. The scheme has three levels, Bronze, Silver and Gold for organisations that pledge, demonstrate or advocate support for Defence and the Armed Forces community. To achieve Gold, organisations must proactively demonstrate that the Armed Forces community are not unfairly disadvantaged as part of their recruitment policies. They must also actively ensure their workforce is aware of their positive policies towards Defence people issues for veterans, Reserves, Cadet Force Adult Volunteers, and spouses and partners of those serving in the Armed Forces.\u003c/p\u003e\n\n\u003cp\u003e\u003cabbr title=\"Defence Electronics and Components Agency\"\u003eDECA\u003c/abbr\u003e employs over 400 staff at our Head Office in Sealand, North Wales and operating site in Stafford. This notice explains how we, Royal Mail Group Limited, use your personal data.

Personal data is information which relates to a person who has been, or could be, identified from it. Examples may include a person’s name, address, email address and other personal details.

Royal Mail Group Limited includes the Royal Mail and Parcelforce Worldwide businesses. The personal data of yours that we use includes:

- details we collect about you when you use our websites and apps
- information provided when you use or receive our services, and
- information we receive from other sources.

We will usually be the ‘data controller’ responsible for how and why personal data is used. We may sometimes use personal data on behalf of another organisation, as that organisation’s ‘data processor’. In this case, that other organisation will explain how your personal data could be used.

Our address is:
Royal Mail Group Limited
185 Farringdon Road
London
EC1A 1AA

When you use or receive our products or services, we will sometimes need to give you additional information about how we will use your personal data. You should read this privacy notice with any other notice or information we provide.

This privacy notice applies if you use any of our products or services. This includes using any of our websites (such as royalmail.com, royalmailgroup.com or parcelforce.com) or apps. This policy also applies if you contact us or we contact you about our services by post, phone, email, text message, push notifications (automatic messages sent by apps) or other methods (including posts on websites and social-media platforms).

•   tracking numbers, barcodes and reference numbers on items we collect or deliver, and
•   details of any electronic device you use to access our services, such as its IP address and operating system.
If you work for one of our business customers, we will record:
•   your business’s name
•   your position in the business, and
•   the business’s address, email address and phone numbers.
If you work for an organisation that supplies services to or works with us, we will also record:
•   your organisation’s name
•   your position in the organisation, and
•   the organisation’s address, email address and phone numbers.

We may also collect contact information of children who use or receive our services.

You provide this information whenever you:
•   contact us directly
•   use our websites or apps
•   fill in one of our forms
•   apply online for a service from us, or
•   use or receive our services.
If you access our services through a smart-speaker or similar technology, we may receive this information from the company providing that technology.
We also collect some of this data when we scan any barcodes on items in our network.
We sometimes receive these personal details from other people and organisations, such as:
•   people sending mail to you
•   organisations who ask us to arrange a collection from or delivery to you, and
•   public sources such as the electoral roll.
We may collect children’s data if the child is included in your application for our Redirection service, somebody sends a child a letter or parcel, or a child uses one of our services. This includes when children send letters to Santa, either from home or school.

4. Information about marketing

<svg class="icon icon--chevron icon--chevron-down" focusable="false" aria-hidden="true" role="img" xmlns:xlink="http://www.w3.org/1999/xlink"><use xlink:href="#chevron"></use></svg>

Marketing

We would like to keep in touch with you, by post, email, phone, social media or online, about our products, services and offers that might interest you. You can choose whether you want to receive these communications and can opt out at any time.

We have a legitimate interest in promoting our products and services, but if you ask us not to send you marketing communications, we won't send them. In particular, when we collect contact information that we would like to use to send you marketing, we will give you the opportunity, at that time, to tell us not to send it.

Making sure our marketing messages are relevant to you

We want to make sure the information we send you about our products and services is relevant to you. To do this, we may use your personal data to help us understand your interests better. We may also use details of your computer, laptop, smartphone or tablet (including its IP address) to check you are linked to the right web page after clicking on one of our online adverts. If you visit our websites, we may also use cookies to tell us which marketing to send you. Please see section 11 below for information about cookies.

These approaches help us to make our communications more relevant and interesting for you. Looking at the web pages you've visited and the things you've bought helps us to understand you as a customer better and allows us to provide personalised services, content, communications and online advertising. We may also measure how you respond to our marketing communications to help us understand how effective they are and offer you products and services that better meet your needs.

If you don't want us to personalise our marketing messages to you in this way, you can opt out of personalisation. If you do this, we will not send you any more marketing communications. Please see section 11 below to find out more about how you can control whether we use cookies in marketing to you.

Tracking technology

We use industry-standard technology to monitor your engagement with marketing emails and send emails automatically, so that we can send you relevant emails at the right time. We use 'tracking pixels' to recognise when you have opened an email that we sent to you. If you don't want us to use tracking pixels, you can use your email settings so that images are not automatically displayed.

safety. These organisations include the police, law enforcement agencies and fraud-prevention agencies. This may include telling other organisations about addresses we will not deliver to or collect from.
If you use our Redirection service, unless you ask us not to, we may sometimes sell information about you to help organisations update their contact details, or so specific types of organisation can send you offers that people moving home may be interested in. You will find more details, including information on how you can choose for us not to sell your information, in the terms and conditions for our Redirection service.
We may pass your name, contact details (such as your email address), and details of your purchases from us, to organisations that help us with market research.
<h3>Postal authorities and overseas carriers</h3>
We will share your personal data with overseas postal authorities and carriers. If you are sending a letter or parcel overseas or receiving an item from overseas, we will provide the information required for customs and tax purposes or for security screening. This information will normally include:
•   the sender’s name and address
•   the name and address of the person receiving the item, and
•   details of the item’s contents.
<h3>Information required by law or regulation</h3>
If required by any law or regulation, we may share your personal data with regulators such as the Information Commissioner.

<svg class="icon icon--chevron icon--chevron-down" focusable="false" aria-hidden="true" role="img" xmlns:xlink="http://www.w3.org/1999/xlink"><use xlink:href="#chevron"></use></svg>

We may share some of the personal data we hold about you with fraud-prevention agencies, who will use it to prevent fraud and money laundering and to confirm your identity. If fraud is detected, you could be refused certain services, finance, or employment. Further details of how we will use your information, the fraud-prevention agencies, and your data protection rights, can be found at www.cifas.org.uk/fpn.

Royal Mail Group and other organisations may also use your personal data to prevent fraud and money laundering when, for example:
•   checking details on applications for credit and credit-related or other facilities
•   managing credit and credit-related accounts or facilities
•   recovering debt
•   checking details on proposals (applications) and claims for all types of insurance
•   checking details of job applicants and employees, and
•   identifying and preventing illegal scam mail.
We and other organisations will also use the information recorded by fraud-prevention agencies from other countries.

<h3>New business customers</h3>
If you are a new business customer applying for a credit account, we may give some of your personal data to TransUnion International UK Limited or Experian Limited, credit-reference agencies providing services such as checking credit risk and affordability, fraud prevention, preventing money laundering, confirming identities and tracing debts.
TransUnion and Experian will use your personal data to provide services to us and their other clients. We use their services in order to assess your creditworthiness and the suitability of products, check your identity, manage your account, trace and recover debts, and prevent criminal activity such as fraud and money laundering. More information about TransUnion and Experian and how they use and share personal data can be found at www.transunion.co.uk/legal/privacy-centre and www.experian.co.uk/legal/.

You have the following rights in relation to your personal data.
<h4>The right to be informed</h4>
We will give you information about how we use your personal data at the time we collect it from you (for example, when you open an account or apply for a service online), or through privacy notices such as this one.
<h4>The right to access your personal data</h4>
You have the right to get a copy of your personal data and details of how we use it.
You can ask for details of the personal data we hold about you by contacting our Information Rights and Governance Team. We may need proof of your identity. We will also need you to tell us which information and uses of your data you want to know about (for example, which of our services were involved and when we might have used the data). We may also ask you to fill in an optional application form to help us confirm your identity and trace the information you need.
<h4>
The right to have your data corrected</h4>
You have the right to have your data corrected if it is wrong or incomplete.
We will do our best to make sure your personal data is accurate and up to date. However, we rely on you to check that some of the information we hold about you is accurate and up to date. Please let us know about any changes to your information (for example, by updating your account details on our websites).
<h4>The right to object</h4>
You have the right to object to some uses of your personal data, such as for marketing (as set out in section 4 above). However, if the law allows us to continue using your data, we may do so.
<h4>The right to have your data deleted</h4>
You have the right to ask us to delete your personal data from our records if there is no legitimate reason for us to continue using it. However, if there is a legitimate reason for us to use it, we will not be able to delete it.
<h4>The right to restrict use of your data</h4>

You have the right to limit the use of your personal data if:
•   you feel that it is not accurate and needs to be checked
•   you disagree with our legal reasons for using your data and want us to reconsider using it
•   we are using your data illegally, but you do not want it to be deleted, or
•   we no longer need the data, but you want us to hold it for the purposes of a legal claim.
<h4>The right to transfer your data</h4>
You have the right to ask us to transfer your personal data to another organisation. We must do this if the transfer is, as data protection law says, ‘technically feasible’.
This right only applies to personal data which you have given to us and which we use either with your agreement or to keep to a contract we have with you.
The right to withdraw your agreement to use personal data
If you have agreed we may use your personal data in a certain way, you can withdraw that agreement at any time.
For support relating to your personal-data rights, please contact our Information Rights and Governance Team at information.rights@royalmail.com.
The Information Commissioner’s Office provides full details of your data protection rights. There is more information on their own website.

<h4>
Covid-19 disruption </h4>
We take the rights set out above very seriously and will always aim to respond to any request from you as soon as we can. However, due to disruption caused by Covid-19, it may take us longer to deal with your request. Please bear with us.
The quickest way for you to contact us is by emailing information.rights@royalmail.com. We will then get back to you by email. We may still need to carry out some checks to confirm your identity and protect your information (for example, by asking you to email us proof of your identity or phoning you to check your details).
